NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS OF MEMOIRS.—Authors are reminded that, under an arrangement dating from 1871, the acceptance of Memoirs, and the days on which they are to be read, are now, as far as possible, determined by Organising Committees for the several Sections before the beginning of the Meeting. It has therefore become necessary, in order to give an opportunity to the Committees of doing justice to the several Communications, that each Author should prepare an Abstract of his Memoir, of a length suitable for insertion in the published Transactions of the Association, and the Council request that he will send it, together with the original Memoir, by book-post, on or before July 24, addressed thus:—“General Secretaries, British Association, 22, Albemarle-street, London, W. For Section” Authors who comply with this request, and whose Papers are accepted, will be furnished before the Meeting with printed copies of their Reports or Abstracts. If it should be inconvenient to the Author that his Paper should be read on any particular day, he is requested to send information thereof to the SECRETARIES in a separate note.

Reports on the Progress of Science, and of Researches entrusted to individuals or Committees, must be forwarded to the ASSISTANT-SECRETARY, for presentation to the Organising Committee, accompanied by a statement whether the Author will be present at the Annual Meeting.

No Report, Paper, or Abstract can be inserted in the Report of the Association unless it is in the Assistant-Secretary's hands before the conclusion of the Meeting.

J. E. H. GORDON, Assistant-Secretary.

SUBSCRIPTIONS CAN COMMENCE FROM ANY DATE.

The Directors beg to inform the Subscribers to the Circulating Library that a constant endeavour will be made to provide a punctual and ample supply of all new works of interest and authority ; and in order to carry out this intention efficiently, they must rely in some measure upon the co-operation and assistance of the Subscribers themselves. It is notorious that a large number of new books of a wholly trivial character are now put into circulation, for which there is no real demand, and the publication of such works is in many instances only rendered possible by the system upon which Circulating Libraries have hitherto been conducted. The expenditure upon works of this class will be strictly curtailed, and the funds will be applied as far as possible to the purchase and circulation of books of a higher order and a really popular character, such as the majority of readers are anxious to obtain upon the date of their publication. The Directors trust by this means to render the Circulating Library, in the truest sense of the word, select, while they will seek at the same time to avoid the kind of interested and arbitrary censorship that has been found alike vexatious to authors and the public.

All the Books in the Library are available for Subscribers, without distinction as to amounts of Subscription.

Full details of Subscriptions, both for Town and Country Members, on application to Mr. C. ALLEN,

LONDON:

SMITH, ELDER, & CO., 15, WATERLOO PLACE.

A SECOND EDITION IS READY OF MR. R. D. BLACKMORE'S NEW NOVEL, MARY ANERLEY: A Yorkshire Story.

3 vols., crown 8vo, 31s. 6d.

SATURDAY REVIEW.

"Mr. Blackmore's latest work is, we are inclined to think, one of his happiest productions."

ATHENÆUM.

"A better novel we have not read for a long time. . . . Racy language, quaint conceits, rich humour, keen observation, and a talent for apt allusions are not every man's gifts."

DAILY NEWS.

"'Mary Anerley' is not so much a story, though it is an admirably constructed story, as a fund of deep studies, of splendid pictures, of most amusing and graphic sketches of the quaintest, queerest people that every believed themselves to be the salt of the earth. It is in such books as Mr. Blackmore's novels that the student of English human nature will find much explanation of its slow acceptance of new ideas, its faith in its own growth of experience, its steady attachment to the land, and its strength both in prejudice and principle. . . . There is such a bluff and hearty open-airiness over it all, such a healthy tone of strong sense and true feeling, such sincerity of plain, natural solidness of thinking, that one feels to stand more firmly in the social system which is built on such broadly based, firm foundations after reading such a book. It is all so true. One feels that the author thoroughly knows and believes what he describes. And who shall say with what humour, what grave acceptance of the comic side of the rustic nature, what sympathetic enjoyment and comprehension of the oddities of folk he does describe?"

YORKSHIRE OPINION OF THIS YORKSHIRE STORY.

HULL NEWS.

"'Mary Anerley' is Yorkshire throughout—racy of the soil. We can with confidence recommend it to our readers, and we trust it may find its way into every Yorkshire library, both public and private."

SHEFFIELD AND ROTHERHAM INDEPENDENT.

"'Mary Anerley' will probably take rank as the best of Mr. Blackmore's few but choice novels."

YORKSHIRE GAZETTE.

"We have probably said sufficient to induce our readers to take up this Yorkshire novel, and if they do we promise them they will be rewarded for their trouble."

LEEDS MERCURY.

"No reader will be satisfied with less than all."

YORK HERALD.

"Anything more realistic, more original in conception and execution, more self-consistent and attractive, we never remember to have read."
